

Kemoy Walker Newsletter

December 2017

November 17th 2017 - Kemoy takes boys group and some of KYSO members to London to visit Houses of Parliament and a trip to Soho.

On this date, We visited the Houses of Parliament with boys group and some of @kysoclub members to gain an insight and understanding of the building, parliament and the structures.

Thanks John for showing us around and giving us a great tour! @visitparliament.

London was such a great sight seeing, we even attended championship store in Soho where we seen "Addison Lee" singer Not3. Not3 was very humble and spoke to the group, he recorded a video saying big up KYSO.

Great day.

November 18th 2017 - Kemoy and MAV set up first ever Youth IAG in Moss Side. They completed their induction on this date.

We have now officially created our very own Youth IAG in moss side, these young people have had their induction on this date and ready to support other young people with any issues! Also to build the relationships between GMP and yp! So proud of them! Group members will have the chance to: Speak directly with police officers and decision makers. Have their voice heard and express views. Engage with other members of the local community and hear their views. Question and challenge the views of other people in a constructive way. Consider own biases and prejudices. Build relationships between police, young people and the community. Raise the profile of young people within the community. Feel a sense of achievement and improve leadership skills. Where appropriate feed into the regular IAG. Where appropriate assist the Community Scrutiny Group.

November 30th 2017 - Kemoy and MCA attend SSAT Conference 2017 at Manchester Central.

Myself and our Assistant Principal took some year 10's to Manchester Central for this year's SSAT National Conference 2017.

They worked so hard with humanutopia in school and the Students came on stage on this date and spoke about their struggles in school and how they overcome them, we are so proud of them!

Well done!

November 30th 2017 - Kemoy and KYSO Crew attend Young Manchester Launch at Sharp Project, Manchester.

Young Manchester Launch tonight, well done to all the fantastic performers, big up to KYSO crew for doing brilliant poems too alongside Young Identity!

Thanks for the Opporunity to DJ!

1st Dec 2017 - Kemoy DJ's and entertains for the Hulme Lights Switch on day event.

Hulme lights switch on was absolutely brilliant, them young people are amazing and danced the evening away, thanks to the councillors Le-ann and others involved and also to MMU Birley for pulling it off well, I enjoyed doing.

thanks.

3rd Dec 2017 - Kemoy Host the Widow Empowerment Trust Christmas Party at the Irish world Heritage Centre, Cheatham Hill.

Being a Community Ambassador means giving back to your community and helping those around you! Brilliant event over the weekend with the fantastic Erinma Bell.

Thanks for the photo! Have a blessed evening.

6th Dec 2017 - Kemoy gets interviewed by OddArts company, Manchester.

Done some fantastic Filming with OddArtsUK tonight, thanks for the projects you have been doing with our amazing young people, they really enjoyed it.

Thanks for giving me the Opportunity to be apart of your film.

15th Dec 2017 - Kemoy host KYSO Awards 2017 @ The Hideaway Youth Project.

On this date was special because it was my team KYSO awards evening 2017 which was held at the hideaway youth project in Moss Side! We celebrated our achievements for this year, gave our certificates and plaque to winners of different categories, we had parents, the community and sponsors who came to support the event, a lot of inspirational speeches and talks from members of the team and also community members, KYSO is celebrating 4 years of excellent work with young people, giving opportunities to all and creating a great platform for talent, thank you to everyone who came out to support, thanks to all our members, our hosts, the KYSO crew and our leaders. We have a great community.
