

Kemoy Walker Newsletter

November 2017

October 13th 2017 - Kemoy speaks to Students at The Manchester College. (Northenden Campus)

Had a brilliant afternoon at The Manchester College with Alex, inspiring young people, talking about Youth work and the setting up KYSO. I also talked about my life and growing up as a black man and facing struggles and how I accomplished them. The students were truly inspired, so I will be going to more colleges inspiring more minds. Thank you Leanne for the opportunity.

October 14th 2017 - Kemoy and Shian perform at the Caribbean Hurricane Disaster Aid Music Concert at Westwood Street.

Me and My leader of @kysoclub sang together on this date at Westwood Street in Moss side, the event was to raise money for the hurricane fund. I always love supporting my community and giving back. Thanks for the organisers for giving us the opportunities to take part.

October 20th 2017 - Kemoy and MCA visit TV Show Educating Greater Manchester - Harrop Fold School for the day.

It was brilliant on this date, spending the day with students at Harrop Fold School, they are from TV show Educating Greater Manchester, our students done amazing performances and took part in other activities throughout the day, I spoke to KS4 students who were brilliant! Thank you! Drew Povey, such an amazing place. Great to meet Mr Chambers and head prefect. #educatinggreatermanchester

October 26th 2017 - Kemoy joins the panel for a discussion at The Whitworth Art Gallery, Manchester for #Blackhistorymonth.

Kemoy had the opportunity to join the Panel for a special event at the Whitworth Art Gallery, Manchester.

The panel also included a member of WYC, a young person from Manchester youth Council and a curator from the Whitworth. The event was chaired by Pat Farrell. Each panel member had the opportunity to introduce themselves and answer each question.

These are the questions that have been set by WYC:

- Do young ethnic minorities fall through the system?
- Does an art gallery have a responsibility to facilitate social change?
- Is our curriculum white?

Kemoy said, thanks for the opportunity.

October 29th 2017 - Kemoy and KYSO Team attends BBC 1Xtra Live Sessions at home cinema, Manchester.

On this date, me and my group attended BBC 1Xtra live sessions at Home Cinema, Manchester to listen to industry experts speak about getting into Radio/Presenting. We also got the chance to listen to man like Donaeo who has been in the music game for 16 years!

it's been a brilliant day! Well done team.

November 3rd 2017 - Kemoy and KYSO Team attends Youth Buzz Award 2017, KYSO got runner up award.

I am so proud as CEO to lead a fantastic movement with amazing people, thanks to everyone who continue to make KYSO accomplish its goal, to inspire, nurture and develop young people in Manchester. A real accolade of more good work to come!!

Always great to be recognised!!

Our next journey is gaining outstanding next year! 2018.
